SHIP SUBSIDY BILL WAS TALKED TO DEATH

ABANDONED BY ITS FRIENDS, FORMAL OBSEQUIES SOON

SITUATION TO BE LAID BEFORE HARDING BY "PALLBEARERS COMMITTEE"

CHAIRMAN LASKER OF SHIPPING BOARD, POWER BACK OF THE PRESIDENT

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 23.—Abandoned at last by its friends, the administration's ship subsidy bill is now virtually dead.

All pretense of future hope has been abandoned by administration leaders who are today considering when the formal obsequies should be held.

Some favored the immediate interment of the bill by unanimous consent. Others wanted to continue the pretense of putting up a fight for the bill against the successful filibuster which democrats and insurgent republicans have conducted.

The decision, it was believed, would be left to President Harding. In any event, republican leaders, including Senators Jones, Lodge, Watson and Curtis saw no hope of keeping the bill before the senate longer than Monday. A motion to recommit it was in prospect as the senate met today and the rapid desertion of administration forces within the past two days made it appear that such a motion stood a good chance of being adopted.

The situation will be laid before President Harding once again either today or tomorrow by committee which has been dubbed by republican senators as the "pallbearers committee".

Some rather plain talk may be served Mr. Harding by this group of administration senators who have up to within a day or two stood by the president in his insistence on a subsidy vote. The senate is less disposed to hold Mr. Harding responsible for the insistence that a hopeless task be persevered in than Chairman Lasker of the shipping board. He, according to general belief in the senate has kept closer to Mr. Harding's ear than any other senator has been able to get and has insisted that the president hold the senate to its task. As a result, a considerable opposition to the subsidy scheme is now opposition to Lasker.

Administration Surrenders to Filibuster

Washington, Feb. 23.—The administration surrendered today to the filibuster against the ship subsidy bill.

Insurgency among republican senators who demanded an opportunity to get a vote on other measures, held back by the filibuster, caused administration leaders to decide to give way.

President Harding was informed by Senator Curtis, republican whip, that there was no chance for a vote on the subsidy and that insistence on keeping it before the senate would merely obstruct other measures that ought to pass.

Curtis received no message from Mr. Harding for the senate but on his return from the White House an agreement was quickly reached which prevented an even worse tie-up than had existed all this week.

Under the agreement the senate will adjourn at 6 p. m. today, consider calendar bills two hours tomorrow and provide for further consideration of the calendar on Monday. This step marked a virtual complete surrender by Senator Jones in charge of the subsidy, who had previously announced repeatedly that he would force the senate to sit nights until he got an agreement for a final vote on the bill.

It was generally believed today that by Saturday night the senate would dispose definitely of the subsidy either by defeating the Jones motion now pending to reinstate the subsidy bill as the senate's unfinished business, or by recommitting the bill to the commerce committee.

FIRE SWEEPS N. Y. EAST SIDE TODAY

(By United Press)
New York, Feb. 23.—Two men were dashed five stories to the street when a red hot fire escape fell, and an aged woman leaped from a high window to the pavement early today when hundreds were forced to the street in their night clothes as fire swept through five buildings on the east side. The three are reported in a dying condition.

Scores of detectives are scouring the section for a "wild appearing man" who is believed by police to have started the fires which took place within the period of an hour and in a space of three blocks.

UNSEATING OF "KLAN SENATOR" IS ASKED

KU KLUX MOTIVES PLAYED IN CONTEST PROCEEDINGS FILED AGAINST MAYFIELD

Washington, Feb. 23.—Sweeping charges against the Ku Klux Klan and its officers were made in election contest papers challenging the right of Earle B. Mayfield to sit in the next congress as a senator from Texas, filed by George E. B. Peddy, who ran for senator last November in Texas as a republican and independent democrat and who accused Mayfield, during a bitter campaign, with being the candidate of the klan as well as the regular democratic organization.

Excessive and illegal expenditures by the Mayfield forces, fraud in counting the ballots and other irregularities were charged in the contest petition asking a recount. It was contended that Mr. Peddy actually was elected but in the event the senate does not so decide, it was asked in the petition that Mayfield nevertheless be barred from taking his seat.

Petition and Charges Filed

Washington, Feb. 23.—A motion to refer to the privilege in elections committee a petition against seating Earle B. Mayfield as senator from Texas will be made today or tomorrow. The petition with accompanying charges was filed yesterday on behalf of George E. B. Peddy, whom Mayfield defeated. An effort also will be made to have the charges printed in the record. No action on the charges will be taken this session as Mayfield is not a member of the present congress.

SAYS AMERICAN JURISPRUDENCE STAGGERING IN SWAMP OF STATUTES

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 23.—American jurisprudence is staggering around in a vast swamp of statutes and decisions growing deeper and broader year by year, Elihu Root, international lawyer and former secretary of state, told more than 400 leaders of the judiciary and bar from all parts of the country in session here today.

Root urged a restating and simplification of the law of the land immediately.

Harding Orders Ouster Of Defiant Democrat

San Francisco, Feb. 23.—Notice was received from President Harding informing Edward M. White of his removal as commissioner of immigration for the port of San Francisco. WONDERFUL THRILL IN COMEBACK THE B. H. S. STAGED

VICTORY ACHIEVED BY BASKETBALL QUINT DOWNED OLD MAN GLOOM

CLEAN CUT CONTEST QUICKLY REVEALED SUPERIORITY OF BRAINERD

(By W. G.)

Brainerd 33, Little Falls 29.

Last night Brainerd high's first basketball quint score showed a comeback equal to any ever staged in previous years, and surpassing the expectations of the most cheerful prophets.

In a clear, clean cut fight Brainerd, proved they are superior to the down river squad and are one of the strongest runners-up for the district championship.

After being whipped on the local floor with a 22 to 14 score, the Blue and White contenders absolutely wiped out that blemish, if you may so call it, to their record by taking the game last night.

Mix From the First

The two teams mixed with great enthusiasm from the first, Little Falls scoring six points before Brainerd made a score. The locals rallied, but the end of the first quarter showed 9 to 8 for the rivals.

Brainerd then took the lead and finished the first half 18 to 11 in their favor.

The next half started with a rush by their opponents and before Brainerd got into swing, they had scored 11 points, bringing the tally 22 to 18 in their favor. Then through consistent work, that proves the mettle of a team, Brainerd pulled the score up until the finish, when the figures read 33 to 29.

The Hero Roll

These are the heroes to whom the city owes so much, and the points they made.

Capt. Hess, forward, showed himself at top notch form. He made 10 of the 33 points.

Wally Engbretson, star forward, again distinguished himself in fleetness and accuracy and added 17 points toward victory.

Zakariassen got the jump a surprising number of times, cooperating with the forwards and adding 2 more points to the total.

Lowe and Heikkinen defended their goal with bulldog grit, keeping the shooting well into the neutral part of the floor, and each scored a ringer.

Coach Rosel Praised

Coach Rosel deserves great praise for his handling the game in the manner he did. In fact his record this season has been one to be showered with praise, completing the schedule with 11 victories and 1 defeat and making the quint a runner-up for the district fight.

The Line-up

Here is last night's line-up:

Abrahamson	Engbretson

Rosenberg made three spectacular baskets from the middle of the floor, thus putting the game on ice

Professor Discovers Moonshine Germ That Helps Out Undertakers

Chicago, Feb. 23.—J. C. Geiger, professor of bacteriology at the University of Chicago, and epidemiologist of the United States public health service, has discovered the germ in moonshine that kills. Professor Geiger says its name is botulinus. It is owing to this germ that the modern devotee of strong drink so often wakes up blind, or falls to wake at all.

Professor Geiger has been analyzing a consignment of liquor which caused the death of six men on a California ranch.

Botulinus is the same germ which lurks in spoiled fruit, and it gives out a deadly toxin.

Hundreds of flappers were turned away and Valentino appeared before Andrew Karzas, manager, and demanded that his salary be doubled. "They are crazy about me," Valentino told Karzas. "The girls are coming in from all over the city to see me. Somebody has got to pay for it."

Karzas thought differently. "He filled the place with flappers," he said. "I gave him all the proceeds. When he asked for more, we called it quits."

The next public appearance of Valentino is now scheduled at his second marriage to Winifred Hudnut, his dancing partner, on March 6th.

EARLY ACTION ON BABCOCK BOND ISSUE PROPOSAL FORECAST

SENTIMENT IS SHAPING MORE STRONGLY FOR PLAN, OWING TO AUTO TAX SITUATION

LEGISLATURE IS EXPECTED TO BUCKLE DOWN TO WORK IN EARNEST NEXT WEEK

Sentiment among leaders in the legislature is shaping more strongly for the Babcock bond issue proposal. Action bringing it before the two houses for a vote in the near future was predicted yesterday. The legislature is adjourned for the holiday, but is expected to buckle down to work in earnest next week.

The highways committees of the two houses have deferred action on the $20,000,000 bond issue proposal. "We want to know first how the new motor vehicle tax bill is going to be framed," said Chairman O. A. Swenson of the house committee. "The need of a bond issue depends somewhat on the revenue the trunk highways fund is going to get from taxation in the next few years."

Committees Are Co-operating

Chairmen of the two motor vehicle committees, Senator W. F. Brooks of Minneapolis and Representative F. A. Green of Stephen, are working closely together. They said that committee bills will aim to keep the tax revenue from automobiles at about the same figure. The tax schedules will be revised, but on a policy of keeping the $18 average. That average was aimed at in framing the tax two years ago, but in practise it fell somewhat below $18, and a bill on that basis means a slight increase in the tax.

Even this leaves the trunk highway fund in such shape that a bond issue is necessary, committee chairmen say. Even this year without a bond issue there will not be money available for new construction to meet the federal aid, it is claimed.

Committee members as a rule are "sold" on the proposed bond issue, though they may favor cutting the amount down somewhat.

N. P. WILL CONSTRUCT $2,000,000 RAILROAD

Minneapolis, Feb. 23.—Construction of a $2,000,000 railroad by the Northern Pacific this spring to run south from Forsythe, Mont., and tap a bituminous coal area, was announced in St. Paul today. Soft coal is said to underlie an area 35 miles south of Forsythe, and to be susceptible to open pit mining. Although rail officials would make no comment, the understanding in St. Paul is that the railroad intends to dig its own coal there.

AMAZING CAREER OF YOUNG MARCINO

CLAIMED THAT ALLEGED BANK WRECKER'S SHORTAGE RUN TO HALF MILLION

(By United Press)

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Further details of the amazing career of Joseph B. Marcino, alleged bank wrecker, whose shortages were reported in excess of $500,000 were revealed today as federal authorities questioned relatives and friends here.

In a ten page letter to his father-in-law Abraham Goldman, the 26 year old financier, admitted his complicity in failures of several banks, and hinted he would commit suicide.

Twelve years ago Marcino came to the United States as an immigrant from Italy. He began a barber trade in the old Lombard hotel here, and from his customers learned the rudiments of high finance. While still in his teens, Marcino left the barber trade and became first an insurance solicitor and then a banker. Four years ago he eloped and married Goldman's daughter Cecelia.

"I warned my girl not to marry him," Goldman told authorities. "But after they eloped, I could only make the best of it. I helped him many times and tried to keep him out of trouble."

Marcino's real name is Balella, but he has used his middle name Marcino for several years.

His parents are in a bakery here. They cannot speak English and were confused when an attempt to explain their son's predicament was made to them.

Bank examiners accuse Marcino of wrecking three financial institutions and declared he was interested in many other ventures which are under investigation.

Mill Workers Face Ruin

JAPAN HALTS FIGHT TO LOWER U. S. BARS; WANTS FRIENDSHIP

NIPPON DECIDES AGAINST RAISING QUESTIONS WHICH MAY STIR UP ILL FEELINGS

MINISTRY DISCOURAGES ORGANIZATION DEMANDING REVISION TO LAND HOLDING

Washington, Feb. 23.—Japan since the arms limitation conference has changed its policy in respect to American immigration and land holding restrictions, and has decided to avoid raising questions likely to stir up ill feeling between Nippon and the United States.

This disclosure of one of the great results of the conference called by President Harding was made officially. Notwithstanding a vigorous organized campaign in Japan to compel the government to insist upon revision of the present treaty, when its 12 year term expires on July 17, the Kato government will not attempt to bring about the revision at that time and will continue to work for more cordial relations between the two countries as essential to the best interest of Japan.

Prime Minister Kato, who headed the Japanese delegation to the Washington conference, is thoroughly committed to the policy of closer relations between the two countries and Ambassador Hanihara who has just arrived in Washington is in thorough sympathy with that policy, having been a colleague of Baron Kato at the conference.

$180,000 BOND MAY BE FORFEITED

CHICAGO BEING HONEYCOMBED BY AUTHORITIES SEARCHING FOR "BIG TIM" MURPHY

(By United Press)
Chicago, Feb. 23.—The $180,000 bond of "Big Tim" Murphy may be forfeited if he does not surrender to federal authorities today.

Department of justice agents searched Chicago hotels throughout the night for the former labor leader who has been ordered to present himself to start a four year term in Leavenworth for alleged conspiracy in the $380,000 Dearborn street mail robbery.

Assistant Attorney Edward A. Olson declared he would appear in court this morning to ask that Murphy's bond be forfeited.

Murphy was ordered to surrender when his 30 day stay pending an appeal to the supreme court expired without action being taken on the case. Friends asserted that Murphy would remain in hiding until the supreme court ruled one way or the other.

"Big Tim's" Wife Locates Him

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Arrangements for the surrender of "Big Tim" Murphy to begin his sentence in the Leavenworth prison for robbing the mails, were made by his wife and attorneys today.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL WAS TALKED TO DEATH

ABANDONED BY ITS FRIENDS, FORMAL OBSEQUIES SOON

SITUATION TO BE LAID BEFORE HARDING BY "PALLBEARERS COMMITTEE"

CHAIRMAN LASKER OF SHIPPING BOARD, POWER BACK OF THE PRESIDENT

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 23.—Abandoned at last by its friends, the administration's ship subsidy bill is now virtually dead.

All pretense of future hope has been abandoned by administration leaders who are today considering when the formal obsequies should be held.

Some favored the immediate interment of the bill by unanimous consent. Others wanted to continue the pretense of putting up a fight for the bill against the successful filibuster which democrats and insurgent republicans have conducted.

The decision, it was believed, would be left to President Harding. I any event, republican leaders, including Senators Jones, Lodge, Watson and Curtis saw no hope of keeping the bill before the senate longer than Monday. A motion to recommit it was in prospect as the senate met today and the rapid desertion of administration forces within the past two days made it appear that such a motion stood a good chance of being adopted.

The situation will be laid before President Harding once again either today or tomorrow by committee which has been dubbed by republican senators as the "pallbearers committee".

Some rather plain talk may be served Mr. Harding by this group of administration senators who have up to within a day or two stood by the president in his insistence on a subsidy vote. The senate is less disposed to hold Mr. Harding responsible for the insistence that a hopeless task be persevered in than Chairman Lasker of the shipping board. He, according to general belief in the senate has kept closer to Mr. Harding's ear than any other senator has been able to get and has insisted that the president hold the senate to its task. As a result, a considerable opposition to the subsidy scheme is now opposition to Lasker.

Administration Surrenders to Filibuster

Washington, Feb. 23.—The administration surrendered today to the filibuster against the ship subsidy bill.

Insurgency among republican senators who demanded an opportunity to get a vote on other measures, held back by the filibuster, caused administration leaders to decide to give way.

President Harding was informed by Senator Curtis, republican whip, that there was no chance for a vote on the subsidy and that insistence on keeping it before the senate would merely obstruct other measures that ought to pass.

Curtis received no message from Mr. Harding for the senate but on his return from the White House an agreement was quickly reached which prevented an even worse tie-up than had existed all this week.

Under the agreement the senate will adjourn at 6 p. m. today, consider calendar bills two hours tomorrow and provide for further consideration of the calendar on Monday. This step marked a virtual complete surrender by Senator Jones in charge of the subsidy, who had previously announced repeatedly that he would force the senate to sit nights until he got an agreement for a final vote on the bill.

It was generally believed today that by Saturday night the senate would dispose definitely of the subsidy either by defeating the Jones motion now pending to reinstate the subsidy bill as the senate's unfinished business, or by committing the bill to the commerce committee.

KU KLUX MOTIVES PLAYED IN CONTEST PROCEEDINGS FILED AGAINST MAYFIELD

Washington, Feb. 23.—Sweeping charges against the Ku Klux Klan and its officers were made in election contest papers challenging the right of Earle B. Mayfield to sit in the next congress as a senator from Texas, filed by George E. B. Peddy, who ran for senator last November in Texas as a republican and independent democrat and who accused Mayfield, during a bitter campaign, with being the candidate of the klan as well as the regular democratic organization.

Excessive and illegal expenditures by the Mayfield forces, fraud in counting the ballots and other irregularities were charged in the contest petition asking a recount. It was contended that Mr. Peddy actually was elected but in the event the senate does not so decide, it was asked in the petition that Mayfield nevertheless be barred from taking his seat.

Petition and Charges Filed

Washington, Feb. 23.—A motion to refer to the privilege in elections committee a petition against seating Earle B. Mayfield as senator from Texas will be made today or tomorrow. The petition with accompanying charges was filed yesterday on behalf of George E. B. Peddy, whom Mayfield defeated. An effort also will be made to have the charges printed in the record. No action on the charges will be taken this session as Mayfield is not a member of the present congress.

Brainerd 33, Little Falls 29.

Last night Brainerd high's first basketball quint score showed a comeback equal to any ever staged in previous years, and surpassing the expectations of the most cheerful prophets.

In a clear, clean cut fight Brainerd, proved they are superior to the down river squad and are one of the strongest runners-up for the district championship.

After being whipped on the local floor with a 22 to 14 score, the Blue and White contenders absolutely wiped out that blemish, if you may so call it, to their record by taking the game last night.

Mix From the First

The two teams mixed with great enthusiasm from the first, Little Falls scoring six points before Brainerd made a score. The locals rallied, but the end of the first quarter showed 9 to 8 for the rivals.

Brainerd then took the lead and finished the first half 18 to 11 in their favor.

The next half started with a rush by their opponents and before Brainerd got into swing, they had scored 11 points, bringing the tally 22 to 18 in their favor. Then through consistent work, that proves the mettle of a team, Brainerd pulled the score up until the finish, when the figures read 33 to 29.

The Hero Roll

Action bringing it before the two houses for a vote in the near future was predicted yesterday. The legislature is adjourned for the holiday, but is expected to buckle down to work in earnest next week.

The highways committees of the two houses have deferred action on the $20,000,000 bond issue proposal. "We want to know first how the new motor vehicle tax bill is going to be framed," said Chairman O. A. Swenson of the house committee. "The need of a bond issue depends somewhat on the revenue the trunk highways fund is going to get from taxation in the next few years."

Committees Are Co-operating
Chairmen of the two motor vehicle committees, Senator W. F. Brooks of Minneapolis and Representative F. A. Green of Stephen, are working closely together. They said that committee bills will aim to keep the tax revenue from automobiles at about the same figure. The tax schedules will be revised, but on a policy of keeping the $18 average.

That average was aimed at in framing the tax two years ago, but in practise it fell somewhat below $18, and a bill on that basis means a slight increase in the tax.

Even this leaves the trunk highway fund in such shape that a bond issue is necessary, committee chairmen say. Even this year without a bond issue there will not be money available for new construction to meet the federal aid, it is claimed.

Committee members as a rule are "sold" on the proposed bond issue, though they may favor cutting the amount down somewhat.

N. P. WILL CONSTRUCT $2,000,000 RAILROAD

Minneapolis, Feb. 23.—Construction of a $2,000,000 railroad by the Northern Pacific this spring to run south from Forsythe, Mont., and tap a bituminous coal area, was announced in St. Paul today. Soft coal is said to underlie an area 35 miles south of Forsythe, and to be susceptible to open pit mining. Although rail officials would make no comment, the understanding in St. Paul is that the railroad intends to dig its own coal there.

CHIEF JENSEN MAKES PLEA "NOT GUILTY"

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Feb. 23.—A. C. Jensen, Minneapolis police chief, indicted for alleged neglect of duty, pleaded not guilty today and was released on his own cognizance.

The chief walked into the office of Sheriff Earl Brown to be formally arrested. He heard the warrants read and went before Judge W. W. Burdwell where County Attorney Floyd Olson was waiting to call the case.

When the charges were read, the chief pleaded not guilty.

Bondsman were ready, but at the suggestion of the county attorney, the court released Chief Jensen. He was indicted on four counts of failing to close gambling and sporting places.

AMAZING CAREER OF YOUNG MARCINO

CLAIMED THAT ALLEGED BANK WRECKER'S SHORTAGE RUN TO HALF MILLION

(By United Press)

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Further details of the amazing career of Joseph B. Marcino, alleged bank wrecker, whose shortages were reported in excess of $500,000 were revealed today as federal authorities questioned relatives and friends here.

In a ten page letter to his father-in-law Abraham Goldman, the 26 year old financier, admitted his complicity in failures of several banks, and hinted he would commit suicide.

Twelve years ago Marcino came to the United States as an immigrant from Italy. He began a barber trade in the old Lombard hotel here, and from his customers learned the rudiments of high finance. While still in his teens, Marcino left the barber trade and became first an insurance solicitor and then a banker. Four years ago he eloped and married Goldman's daughter Cecelia.

"I warned my girl not to marry him," Goldman told authorities. "But after they eloped, I could only make the best of it. I helped him many times and tried to keep him out of trouble."

Marcino's real name is Baletta, but he has used his middle name Marcino for several years.

His parents are in a bakery here. They cannot speak English and were confused when an attempt to explain their son's predicament was made to them.

Bank examiners accuse Marcino of wrecking three financial institutions and declared he was interested in many other ventures which are under investigation.

Mill Workers Face Ruin

Warren, Mass., Feb. 23.—Scores of mill workers, small store keepers and farmers are facing ruin today as a result of the looting of the First National Bank of more than $200,000 and the flight of its president, Frank L. Taylor.

The hope that they would eventually be paid in full faded today as additional news arrived from Chicago of the plot by which the bank was wrecked.

'Intermediate Credits' An Aid to Farmers

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 23.—"Hundreds of thousands of farmers" have failed because of their inability to obtain "intermediate credits," Secretary of Agriculture Wallace today declared in a letter to Representative Anderson of Minnesota.

By intermediate credits the secretary said he meant loans between those of short terms and the long term mortgage variety.

Wallace also endorsed the Lenroot-Anderson farm credits bill as providing this deficiency, stating that he favored it in preference to the measure of Senator Capper.

JAPAN HALTS FIGHT TO LOWER U. S. BARS; WANTS FRIENDSHIP

NIPPON DECIDES AGAINST RAISING QUESTIONS WHICH MAY STIR UP ILL FEELINGS

MINISTRY DISCOURAGES ORGANIZATION DEMANDING REVISION TO LAND HOLDING

Washington, Feb. 23.—Japan since the arms limitation conference has changed its policy in respect to American immigration and land holding restrictions, and has decided to avoid raising questions likely to stir up ill feeling between Nippon and the United States.

This disclosure of one of the great results of the conference called by President Harding was made officially. Notwithstanding a vigorous organized campaign in Japan to compel the government to insist upon revision of the present treaty, when its 12 year term expires on July 17, the Kato government will not attempt to bring about the revision at that time and will continue to work for more cordial relations between the two countries as essential to the best interest of Japan.

Prime Minister Kato, who headed the Japanese delegation to the Washington conference, is thoroughly committed to the policy of closer relations between the two countries and Ambassador Hanihara who has just arrived in Washington is in thorough sympathy with that policy, having been a colleague of Baron Kato at the conference.

$180,000 BOND MAY BE FORFEITED

CHICAGO BEING HONEYCOMBED BY AUTHORITIES SEARCHING FOR "BIG TIM" MURPHY

(By United Press)
Chicago, Feb. 23.—The $180,000 bond of "Big Tim" Murphy may be forfeited if he does not surrender to federal authorities today.

Department of justice agents searched Chicago hotels throughout the night for the former labor leader who has been ordered to present himself to start a four year term in Leavenworth for alleged conspiracy in the $380,000 Dearborn street mail robbery.

Assistant Attorney Edward A. Olson declared he would appear in court this morning to ask that Murphy's bond be forfeited.

Murphy was ordered to surrender when his 30 day stay pending an appeal to the supreme court expired without action being taken on the case. Friends asserted that Murphy would remain in hiding until the supreme court ruled one way or the other.

"Big Tim's Wife Locates Him

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Arrangements for the surrender of "Big Tim" Murphy to begin his sentence in the Leavenworth prison for robbing the mails, were made by his wife and attorneys today.

Mrs. Murphy informed Judge James H. Wilkerson that her husband would give himself up before night if the $180,000 posted by his bondsmen is not forfeited. The court agreed to the delay.

AMERICAN RUBBER GOODS IN CRISIS

 and efficiently arranged. The large living room is a thing to be desired in any home, and the appropriation of space usually allotted to halls provides extra room without loss of convenience. The dining room and kitchen are conveniently placed, with entrances that assure a minimum of floor walking.

The upstairs provides one large chamber and two smaller ones, all with large closet space. The bath room is placed for easy access from any room.

These plans and others we would be glad to show you in detail.

The readings by Miss Quinlen and Miss O'Connor were honor readings, at the recent declamatory contests. Miss O'Connor should have gone to Cloquet for the district contest, but was unable to do so on account of the crippled train service during the recent storm.

The address of Rev. Walenta's was exceptionally good. The sterling qualities of Washington were applied to present day living. Service, Sympathy and Sacrifice were the three virtues which received the speaker's attention. Her application was given to modern life, in business, and in school work, even to athletics. They are qualities that are demanded of all, no matter what station in life or what work we are engaged in, and were developed to a very high degree in the life of Washington.

At the Lincoln building, County Attorney Walter F. Wieland gave a splendid address on the life of Washington. Other numbers on the program included appropriate readings, songs, etc.

At each grade room in the Washington and Lincoln buildings, beautiful silk flags were presented to each grade in behalf of the Parent-Teachers Association of these buildings. The presentation speeches in the Washington grades were made by Mrs. Albert Fox, representing the W. R. C. and the Ladies of the G. A. R., and at the Lincoln school by Mr. Fox as a representative of the Grand Army.

Following is given the program of the Riverside school in West Brainerd:

THE WELFARE OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN

DURING this session of the Minnesota legislature the members of that body should be given the opportunity of voting either for or against an appropriation by which the state of Minnesota may share in the advantages of the Sheppard-Towner act. The appropriations committee of the house and the finance committee of the senate should not prevent the house and senate from discussing the merits of this matter which means so much to the women and children of this state.

The Sheppard-Towner act is an act for the public protection of maternity and infancy and provides a method of cooperation between the government of the United States and the several states. It authorizes the appropriation of money annually "to be paid to the several states for the purpose of cooperating with them in promoting the welfare and hygiene of maternity and infancy." The administration of the act is in the hands of the Board of Maternity and Infant Hygiene of the federal government, which works, in the several states, through their Child Welfare Boards. To share in the benefits of the act, each state must appropriate an amount equal to the amount paid to the state by the federal government.

While it is true that at this time the people of Minnesota are demanding retrenchment it is not to be supposed that they ask that money be saved at the expense of endangering the lives of mothers and children who, if this appropriation is made, would, through the instruction given in prenatal and infancy care, be advised of the dangers that so often result in death.

The legislature must decide how the monies of the state are to be appropriated and, while they must consider expenditures that look to material development, they will be remiss in their duty to the people of the state if they fail to consider ways and means of safeguarding the lives of mothers and children, even though this may mean that some other appropriation must be held up. This appropriation, which secures an equal appropriation from the federal government, and enables the Child Welfare Board of the state to carry on the good work of instructing mothers in self-care and the nursing of their babies, should be made by the legislature.

It would also seem that the legislature should appropriate the amount of money which it is under an obligation to refund to the counties of the state as one-third of the money expended by the counties on mothers' pensions. This would not increase taxation but would transfer part of the burden from the several counties to the state of Minnesota.

Appropriations that mean so much to the health of mothers and their care of their children should not be side-tracked by committees. They should be reported out and the legislature given a chance to dispose of them. Even if some other appropriations are denied these should be voted by legislators whose first concern should be the health and general welfare of their constituents.

STIMULATING A PATRIOTIC SPIRIT

THE superintendent of our city schools, the principals of the several buildings and the teachers of the various grades, are to be congratulated on their splendid effort to stimulate the children under their care by providing patriotic programs that make for a vital and warm patriotism.

In visiting one school—and because the exercises are held at the same hour only one may be visited—one concludes that similar exercises of equally high order are held in the others, and in citing the inspiring features of the program in one school, such a tribute to the school visited, does not mean that this was of a higher standard than the others, but, that its program is emphasized because it was seen and heard.

At 9 o'clock on Thursday morning Miss Barrett graciously greeted such as approached the door of the room in which the children of the higher grades of the Whittier school were gathered for their patriotic exercises on Washington's natal day. The exercises in that room were of a high order. The great men of America's history spoke again in the messages that were articulated by the scholars in the room. The voices of the young people carried over the wisdom of these great leaders, and those listening, were impressed by the fervor and enthusiasm of the speakers. Young America was taking a lesson from the past and the past was breathing its sacred influence into the present. The America of yesterday was linked to the children of today—who will mould its destiny tomorrow.

No one can calculate the values that come from such programs. When they are well-balanced as the one referred to the children are saved from the provincialism that has sometimes marred patriotic occasions. Kipling's "Recessional" was given with just as much enthusiasm as quotations from our own leaders and thinkers. The messages chosen from the past and the present were not such as to inculcate a narrow and bigoted exclusiveness; they were marked by breadth of vision and depth of conviction.

A warm patriotism is of supreme importance. He who loves his home with a fervent love is worth more to the community than the man who with certain communist theories may become a menace to the morals of the community. Not by a decrease of patriotism but by its increase will there come in a day when national relations are more unified. He who does not respect himself cannot have a proper respect for others.

PUBLIC APPRECIATION OF FIRE DEPARTMENT

THE crowds that gathered at the New Park theatre on Wednesday and Thursday evenings to see the "Third Alarm," a picture screened for the benefit of Brainerd's Fire Department, bore witness to the appreciation in which the department is held by the people of the city.

Many people had a new experience on Wednesday evening when they reached the lobby of the theatre at 7 o'clock to find that all the seats in the theatre were already occupied. Some of these returned at 9 o'clock to find that their chance of securing a seat was anything but hopeful. Many left without securing admittance, not begrudging the 35 cents they had paid for a ticket that might not be used.

Not only did the large crowd at the doors of the theatre reflect credit on the city's fire department, it also did credit to those who made up the crowd. Those who are capable of appreciating the services of others deserve their meed of praise. Brainerd proved that these men, who at all times are ready to respond to an alarm; who, with the equipment they have, do splendid work in fighting fires; who are ready if necessary to risk their lives to save others who are endangered, do not serve without securing the respect of their fellow-citizens.

The showing made at the benefit of the "Third Alarm" is an indication that the citizens of this city are ready to back up any reasonable move that may be made by the city council, to provide more adequate equipment for the use of the fire department, which has won the admiration of our citizens by the splendid services they have rendered.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT THROUGH ENGLISH EYES

MISS MAUDE ROYDEN told Minneapolis women what she thought about capital punishment. Her words were not those of a radical or an upstart. If we are not mistaken Miss Royden is the daughter of a lord mayor of one of the larger English cities. She has had every advantage of culture and social position but, at the call to a larger service, she became a preacher and is the only woman in England who preaches regularly from one platform.

All of her earlier relations were with the best cultural and social life in England, and at this time she is a leader of thought in her home land. It is therefore interesting that she should voice her objection to capital punishment. Miss Royden comes from a country that moves slowly. Changes are favored by many before changes are made. But when changes are made the preparation has been so thorough that a swing back is not to be expected.

Those who have been appealing to English sanctions for capital punishment will be discomfited by Miss Royden's opinion. An English woman has voiced objections to capital punishment, and yet, for purposes of argument, those who want to go back towards barbarism in this state call up England's hangings in support of their position. Minnesota will not go back, this state invites England to go forward, as Miss Royden and many others, wish her to do.

THOSE who have watched Christie Mathewson at the plate and who were grieved over his sickness will rejoice that the "Big Six" is coming back as president of the Boston National league baseball club. Come again, "Big Six!"

Laid With Galvanized or Copper Nails.

In building a new house or barn or reroofing an old one there are four things which you should clearly bear in mind. These are:

First, the seasoning of your shingles. This is one of the most important things about shingles. If they are kiln dried they stand a good chance of being dried out too fast and too much. That makes them brittle and liable to crack in nailing. "Half Century" Brand Shingles are all "air-cured"—nature's way—the best way.

Second, accurate and uniform thickness of shingles. If too thin they are apt to "curl" and warp.

Third, the kind of wood from which your shingles are made. Everybody who knows anything about woods knows that some woods stand the "wear" of weather much better than others and that the wood that resists "weather-wear" best is White Cedar.

Fourth, use the proper nails. "Half Century" Shingles outwear common steel nails by a long, long margin. Use galvanized or copper nails. The other kind soon rust out. For a roof that will last your lifetime (and more) insist on having "Half Century" Brand White Cedar Shingles and use rust-resisting nails.

And remember that White Cedar Shingles take any color, shade or stain beautifully. All lumber dealers can supply you. (Insist on seeing the trade-mark above on every bundle).

THE WELFARE OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN

DURING this session of the Minnesota legislature the members of that body should be given the opportunity of voting either for or against an appropriation by which the state of Minnesota may share in the advantages of the Sheppard-Towner act. The appropriations committee of the house and the finance committee of the senate should not prevent the house and senate from discussing the merits of this matter which means so much to the women and children of this state.

The Sheppard-Towner act is an act for the public protection of maternity and infancy and provides a method of cooperation between the government of the United States and the several states. It authorizes the appropriation of money annually "to be paid to the several states for the purpose of cooperating with them in promoting the welfare and hygiene of maternity and infancy * * *". The administration of the act is in the hands of the Board of Maternity and Infant Hygiene of the federal government, which works, in the several states, through their Child Welfare Boards. To share in the benefits of the act, each state must appropriate an amount equal to the amount paid to the state by the federal government.

While it is true that at this time the people of Minnesota are demanding retrenchment it is not to be supposed that they ask that money be saved at the expense of endangering the lives of mothers and children who, if this appropriation is made, would, through the instruction given in prenatal and infancy care, be advised of the dangers that so often result in death.

The legislature must decide how the monies of the state are to be appropriated and, while they must consider expenditures that look to material development, they will be remiss in their duty to the people of the state if they fail to consider ways and means of safeguarding the lives of mothers and children, even though this may mean that some other appropriation must be held up. RED LETTER DAY IN MASONRY

Washington's Birthday and 50th Anniversary of Local Lodge Celebrated

200 DINERS AT THE BANQUET

A. J. Hayes Presided as Toastmaster, Carl Zapffe Gave Complete History of Aurora Lodge

Thursday was a day that will long be remembered in Masonic circles. In addition to the usual Washington's birthday observance, the lodge celebrated its fiftieth anniversary as an organization in the city.

The ladies of the Eastern Star served a banquet at six o'clock to over two hundred diners, including many visitors from neighboring towns. A delicious four-course menu was discussed, and a rising vote of thanks tendered the ladies.

A. J. Hayes, acting as toastmaster, presented a very fine program, which showed much thought on the part of those participating.

Miss Lois Chadbourne rendered a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Johnstone at the piano. Miss Chadbourne graciously responded to an encore.

Carl Zapffe gave a very complete history of Aurora lodge from the date it was organized, August 8th, 1872, down to the present day, calling to mind many faces and incidents remembered only by the older residents. From a lowly beginning in a small room on the third floor of the E. H. Bly building, the lodge has had a steady growth until at present it has on its books 272 members.

A fine tribute was paid to B. J. Perry, one of the early sponsors of the local fraternity, long since passed to his reward. Mr. Zapffe also spoke in glowing terms of one of the oldest living members of Aurora lodge, B. S. Mallory, who holds the enviable distinction of having served four times as worshipful master, a record that has never been made by any other head of the order. Mr. Mallory has been ill for several years, but was able to attend Thursday's festivities. Wm. R. Woods, now a resident of St. Paul, is said to be the oldest in point of membership of this lodge, and has been granted a life membership in the order.

Miss Alice R. Johnstone rendered a violin solo, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. A. M. Johnson, and followed with an encore.

O. M. Wanvig, of Deerwood, paid a high tribute to masonry in a masterly address on that subject. Mr. Wanvig is an orator of exceptional ability, and brought home to his hearers very forcefully the cardinal virtues for which the fraternity stands.

Hugo Pflock and his student, Charles Olson, gave a pleasing violin duet, and responded to an encore with a clarinet duo, Mrs. Walter Wieland acting as accompanist.

George Washington, as a man and as a Mason, was eulogized by County Attorney Walter F. Wieland. The outstanding characteristics of this first great American were dwelt upon and his many strong traits of character recounted, things which have made him known and honored throughout all of the civilized world. Washington stands out today as having been one of the most respected Masons of history. The lodge at Mt. Vernon, of which he was worshipful master, is still retained intact.

Dr. G. I. Badeaux favored with a vocal solo and an encore, being accompanied by Mrs. Wieland. A. C. Ebert, as song leader, led in community singing and in the closing hymn, America.

From Rev. Sheridan

The toastmaster read responses from Brainerd Masons, head officers, and others.

Rev. George Phil Sheridan in his letter stated:

"Whenever I receive a communication from you (Secretary Chadbourne) it always makes me homesick; because it carries me back to the pleasant days of fellowship and real Masonic brotherhood I enjoyed with you all."

"No lodge can ever mean to me what Aurora does. I have visited a number of lodges since I left Brainerd and have acted in the capacity of many Grand Officers at public ceremonies, but my one distinction of which I am rightly proud is the fact that I am a Past Master of Aurora lodge."

"It would be a delight beyond expression to be with you on this occasion, but Feb. 22 this year is in the Lenten period and I have a very extensive program for my church; and it would not be advisable to neglect it."

"I shall be thinking of you all, and will breathe a prayer for all the brothers, that they might be true to

LOST HER LIFE IN THE BLIZZARD

Dorothy Whitman, Former Brainerd Girl, Living Near Barretts, Victim of Storm

STARTED AFTER PAUL OF WATER

Dragged Milk Can on Sled to River and Then Lost Her Way and Was Frozen to Death

Dorothy Whitman, a former Brainerd girl, living near Barretts, lost her life in the storm of February 13th.

She was unaccustomed to prairie blizzards, and thinking it only an ordinary snow storm started for the river for water, taking a large milk can on a sled. Her people wanted her 10 year old brother with her, but she thought she would be perfectly safe alone.

Becoming alarmed when Dorothy had not returned at the end of fifteen minutes, her parents instituted a search for her which lasted twenty hours in a storm that increased in fury so that objects could hardly be discerned three feet distance. The body was finally found about a mile from home where she had wandered and fallen in exhaustion.

The unfortunate girl was born in Brainerd, on May 28th, 1909. She is survived by her father, Richard Whitman, four sisters, Alice, Lillian, Violet and June, and two brothers, Richard and Thomas. Her mother died in Cayuna four years ago.

The funeral was held in the Temple of God in Alexandria, forty miles from her home, and interment made there. Rev. Armstrong preached a very strong sermon and the favorite hymns of the departed were sung.

Brainerd people who attended the services included Mrs. H. J. Kyallquist, aunt of the deceased, and her brother and sister, Richard and Alice Whitman.

Our grand institution and that the light of Aurora may ever be like the sun rising in the East, a guide and an inspiration to all who are in need."

From George D. LaBar

George D. LaBar, returning to Brainerd, wired from Chicago: "Greetings and best wishes for a successful 50th anniversary celebration."

Little Falls lodge and Aitkin lodge sent congratulations. Aitkin lodge was represented by twenty brothers. Staples sent 15 brothers and Pine River also had a large delegation.

W. P. Pirie, a Past Master of St. Louis, Mo., regretted being unable to attend.

Grand Officers

Grand Master J. M. McConnell wrote that a previous engagement made it impossible for him to be at Brainerd. He had to attend the Washington-Alexandria Memorial Association meeting in Alexandria. The jurisdiction of Minnesota is a stockholder in this association.

Grand Secretary John Fishel, sick with the grippe, had intended to be present, but could not come on account of illness. He extended his heartiest fraternal greetings.

At the afternoon meeting of the lodge the work of the third degree was exemplified in a wonderful way by past masters.

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN ATTENTION!

The second quarter of the yearly dues is due March 1st. Esther Fogelstrom, in the office of the Water & Light Board, is treasurer, and payment can be made to her in person or by mail. Members are expected to pay dues promptly. The fire loss makes it especially necessary that these dues be paid at once.

COL. C. D. JOHNSON WAS BROADCASTED

Eminent Brainerd Orator and Druggist a Shining Light at St. Paul Druggists Convention

ALSO AT REXALL GATHERING

Jewels of Speech Flow in Limpid, Purling Stream and Dazzle With Rainbow Colors

Our esteemed fellow-citizen Col. C. D. Johnson has covered himself with glory and bathed by indirect light the whole of Brainerd in the fulgent glow of futurist colors when he turned loose his full oratorical equipment and responded to Mayor Nelson of St. Paul in the latter's address of welcome delivered at the convention of the Minnesota State Pharmaceutical Association at the Northwest Drug exposition in the St. Paul auditorium.

He was also a speaker at the Rexall convention, the Johnson pharmacy being a member of this association.

But greater than all these honors was that accorded him by W. L. A. G. when Charlie gave one of his inimitable talks and the broadcasting got the whole United States, Alaska and other American possessions, Canada, the Bahamas and also a section of England, France and Ireland as an audience. Never before in Col. Johnson's history have the dulcet tones of his voice carried that far and when it was all over he got congratulations from all sides.

FIRE DEPARTMENT REGISTERING JOY

Elated Over the Success of Their Benefit Picture, "The Third Alarm"

FIREMEN SOLD 2,000 TICKETS

To Add to Realism of Pictures Siren and Bell From Fire Department Were Used

The Brainerd Fire Department feels highly elated over the success of their benefit picture, "The Third Alarm" which was shown at the New Park theatre to record audiences Wednesday and Thursday.

It has been the custom in former years to hold an annual ball, but this year's picture proved a bigger event and brought in more money for the department than anything previously tried.

The firemen sold their allotment of two thousand tickets and could have found buyers for many more. This is in addition to those sold at the box office.

To add to the realistic features of the picture, which contained a thrilling fire scene in the climax, the siren and bell from the fire truck was used being operated from the wings of the stage. Firemen were stationed at the various exits of the theatre, thus emphasizing the fact that the show was theirs.

The department wishes to thank all who supported this benefit, for the publicity it was given and the many courtesies shown the committee in charge.

Busy Bee Class

The Busy Bee class of the Zion's Evangelical church met at the home of Margaret Gorton on Wednesday evening, February 21. After a short business meeting, the girls entertained their mothers. A delicious luncheon was served at the close of evening.

THE DAYS OF THOS. LANIHAN

Latter Elected in Spirit of Fun, Qualified, Wearing Stovepipe Hat, Etc.

The following is an excerpt from "Brainerd's Half Century", written by Ingolf Dillan and soon to be published in book form:

Nothing of importance in municipal affairs took place until 1875. In that year M. C. Russell, elected mayor in April, addressed the council as follows: "I would also call the attention of your body to the great necessity of making suitable provision for keeping the public wells in complete repair at all times, so that in case of fire, any or all of them could be worked to their fullest capacity." The next most important communication of the mayor related to his avowed intention strictly to enforce all ordinances until amended or repealed. Thereupon he proceeded to enforce the Sunday closing ordinance to the letter. Attempts to repeal the obnoxious measure failed repeatedly. J. R. Pegg, president of the council, even refused to entertain a motion to vote on the repeal. On May 17, 1875, "President Pegg" tendered his resignation and on motion of Alderman McNannay, properly carried, it was laid in the stove.

These comparatively unimportant matters were followed by an event never to be forgotten. Upon resignation of Mayor Russell, a special election was held on May 28th, 1875. Partly in fun, partly in protest, a certain element had nominated Thomas Lanihan to oppose Judge C. B. Sleeper. Tom was a well-meaning fellow who hauled garbage and did various odd jobs to earn enough to support his large family. He was poor and ignorant—no discredit to a man, but hardly the best qualifications to commend him for the mayorship. Doubtless many voted for Lanihan in the spirit of fun. Nevertheless the election returns were a surprise to all—and a shock to many.

Brainerd had elected Thomas Lanihan—or Lannihan, or Lennihan; the name is variously spelled, even in the official city records.

But of course he could not qualify. There must be some way to persuade him to give up the office. Brainerd could not have what many considered a "saloon bum" for mayor. Wrong! Mayor Lanihan did qualify. Friends supplied him with a stovepipe hat, white shirt, broadcloth suit, and drinks. Then came speeches. Enemies of the new mayor then hoped to confuse him in the execution of his official duties, but Mayor Lanihan's common sense bade him "take under advisement" any matter which he could not handle offhand. His duties were not difficult, and he had friends who advised him well. Why should he give up his office? He wanted his children always to be able to speak of their father as "The Honorable Thomas Lanihan, Mayor of the City of Brainerd." Also, the office had been given to him at a democratic election; he could not shirk his duty and public trust.

The deadlock came, however, in his relations with his council. They would not recognize him at all. They disapproved every appointment he made; Brainerd was even without a chief of police. Within a few weeks a motion was made and carried to impeach the mayor for refusing to enforce the dog ordinance, and to appoint a day for his trial. The trial was set for July 30th, 1875, but no record of it is to be found. Very few city council meetings followed (September 13th, November 22nd, and January 18th) and only minor matters were taken up, such as allowing bills. One example will suffice: a bill of $1.50 for burying dogs was presented; the council allowed only seventy-five cents. When a city council has only such trivial business to consider, it is high time to throw up the city charter and revert to a township form of government. In fact, as early as September 13th, 1873, M. C. Russell in a Tribune editorial urged that Brainerd become a township, because the combined city and county governments were too expensive to maintain. Brainerd and Crow Wing were the only settlements in the county; so Brainerd had to pay almost the entire cost of both governments.

In the winter of 1876, the legislature took away the city charter and authorized a township government. On March 14th, 1876, the first town meeting was held. For several years only minor matters were taken up.

On November 18th, 1881, an act of the legislature re-established city government here, incorporating the "City of Brainerd." The notice by the Secretary of State bears the date of November 21, 1881. On January 10, 1882, the city elected the following officials: Mayor B. F. Hartley, Aldermen James Dewar, George Stratton, William Ferris (president), A. P. Farrar, George Forsythe and Adam Brown. Leon E. Lum was appointed city attorney. The council fixed liquor licenses at $50.00 per year.

RED LETTER DAY IN MASONRY

Washington's Birthday and 50th Anniversary of Local Lodge Celebrated

200 DINERS AT THE BANQUET

A. J. Hayes Presided as Toastmaster. Carl Zapffe Gave Complete History of Aurora Lodge

Thursday was a day that will long be remembered in Masonic circles. In addition to the usual Washington's birthday observance, the lodge celebrated its fiftieth anniversary as an organization in the city.

The ladies of the Eastern Star served a banquet at six o'clock to over two hundred diners, including many visitors from neighboring towns. A delicious four-course menu was discussed, and a rising vote of thanks tendered the ladies.

A. J. Hayes, acting as toastmaster, presented a very fine program, which showed much thought on the part of those participating.

Miss Lois Chadbourne rendered a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Johnstone at the piano. Miss Chadbourne graciously responded to an encore.

Carl Zapffe gave a very complete history of Aurora lodge from the date it was organized, August 5th, 1872, down to the present day, calling to mind many faces and incidents remembered only by the older residents. From a lowly beginning in a small room on the third floor of the E. H. Bly building, the lodge has had a steady growth until at present it has on its books 372 members.

A fine tribute was paid to B. J. Perry, one of the early sponsors of the local fraternity, long since passed to his reward. Mr. Zapffe also spoke in glowing terms of one of the oldest living members of Aurora lodge, B. S. Mallory, who holds the enviable distinction of having served four times as worshipful master, a record that has never been made by any other head of the order. Mr. Mallory has been ill for several years, but was able to attend Thursday's festivities. Wm. R. Woods, now a resident of St. Paul, is said to be the oldest in point of membership of this lodge, and has been granted a life membership in the order.

Miss Alice R. Johnstone rendered a violin solo, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone, and followed with an encore.

O. M. Wavvig, of Deerwood, paid a high tribute to masonry in a masterly address on that subject. Mr. Wavvig is an orator of exceptional ability, and brought home to his hearers very forcefully the cardinal virtues for which the fraternity stands.

Hugo Pflock and his student, Charles Olson, gave a pleasing violin duet, and responded to an encore with a clarinet duo. Mrs. Walter Wieland acting as accompanist.

George Washington, as a man and as a Mason, was eulogized by County Attorney Walter F. Wieland. The outstanding characteristics of this first great American were dwelt upon and his many strong traits of character recounted, things which have made him known and honored throughout all of the civilized world. Washington stands out today as having been one of the most respected Masons of history. The lodge at Mt. Vernon, of which he was worshipful master, is still retained intact.

Dr. G. I. Badeaux favored with a vocal solo and an encore, being accompanied by Mrs. Wieland. A. C. Ebert, as song leader, lead in community singing and in the closing hymn, America.

From Rev. Sheridan
The toastmaster read responses from Brainerd Masons, head officers, and others.

Rev. George Phil Sheridan in his letter stated:

"Whenever I receive a communication from you (Secretary Chadbourne) it always makes me homesick; because it carries me back to the pleasant days of fellowship and real Masonic brotherliness I enjoyed with you all."

"No lodge can ever mean to me what Aurora does. I have visited a number of lodges since I left Brainerd and have acted in the capacity of many Grand Officers at public ceremonies, but my one distinction of which I am rightly proud is the fact that I am a Past Master of Aurora lodge."

"It would be a delight beyond expression to be with you on this occasion, but Feb. 22 this year is in the Lenten period and I have a very extensive program for my church; and it would not be advisable to neglect it."

"I shall be thinking of you all, and will breathe a prayer for all the brothers that they might be true to

LOST HER LIFE IN THE BLIZZARD

Dorothy Whitman, Former Brainerd Girl, Living Near Barrett, Victim of Storm

STARTED AFTER PAIL OF WATER

Dragged Milk Can on Sled to River and Then Lost Her Way and Was Frozen to Death

Dorothy Whitman, a former Brainerd girl, living near Barrett, lost her life in the storm of February 13th.

She was unaccustomed to prairie blizzards, and thinking it only an ordinary snow storm started for the river for water, taking a large milk can on a sled. Her people wanted her 10 year old brother with her, but she thought she would be perfectly safe alone.

Becoming alarmed when Dorothy had not returned at the end of fifteen minutes, her parents instituted a search for her which lasted twenty hours in a storm that increased in fury so that objects could hardly be discerned three feet distance. The body was finally found about a mile from home where she had wandered and fallen in exhaustion.

The unfortunate girl was born in Brainerd, on May 28th, 1909. She is survived by her father, Richard Whitman, four sisters, Alice, Lillian, Violet and June, and two brothers, Richard and Thomas. Her mother died in Cayuna four years ago.

The funeral was held in the Temple of God in Alexandria, forty miles from her home, and interment made there. Rev. Armstrong preached a very strong sermon and the favorite hymns of the departed were sung. Brainerd people who attended the services included Mrs. H. J. Kyallquist, aunt of the deceased, and her brother and sister, Richard and Alice Whitman.

Our grand institution and that the light of Aurora may ever be like the sun rising in the East, a guide and an inspiration to all who are in need."

From George D. LaBar
George D. LaBar, returning to Brainerd, wired from Chicago: "Greetings and best wishes for a successful 50th anniversary celebration."

Little Falls lodge and Aitkin lodge sent congratulations. Aitkin lodge was represented by twenty brothers. Staples sent 15 brothers and Pine River also had a large delegation.

W. P. Pirie, a Past Master of St. Louis, Mo., regretted being unable to attend.

Grand Officers

Grand Master J. M. McConnell wrote that a previous engagement made it impossible for him to be at Brainerd. He had to attend the Washington-Alexandria Memorial Association meeting in Alexandria. The jurisdiction of Minnesota is a stockholder in this association.

Grand Secretary John Fishel, sick with the gripe, had intended to be present, but could not come on account of illness. He extended his heartiest fraternal greetings.

At the afternoon meeting of the lodge the work of the third degree was exemplified in a wonderful way by past masters.

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN ATTENTION!

The second quarter of the yearly dues is due March 1st. Esther Fogelstrom, in the office of the Water & Light Board, is treasurer, and payment can be made to her in person or by mail. Members are expected to pay dues promptly. The fire loss makes it especially necessary that these dues be paid at once.

COL. C. D. JOHNSON WAS BROADCASTED

Eminent Brainerd Orator and Druggist a Shining Light at St. Paul Druggists Convention

ALSO AT REXALL GATHERING

Jewels of Speech Flow in Limpid, Purling Stream and Dazzle With Rainbow Colors

Our esteemed fellow-citizen Col. C. D. Johnson has covered himself with glory and bathed by indirect light the whole of Brainerd in the fulgent glow of futurist colors when he turned loose his full oratorical equipment and responded to Mayor Nelson of St. Paul in the latter's address of welcome delivered at the convention of the Minnesota State Pharmaceutical Association at the Northwest Drug exposition in the St. Paul auditorium.

He was also a speaker at the Rexall convention, the Johnson pharmacy being a member of this association.

But greater than all these honors was that accorded him by W. L. A. G. when Charlie gave one of his inimitable talks and the broadcasting got the whole United States, Alaska and other American possessions, Canada, the Bahamas and also a section of England, France and Ireland as an audience. Never before in Col. Johnson's history have the dulcet tones of his voice carried that far and when it was all over he got congratulations from all sides.

FIRE DEPARTMENT REGISTERING JOY

Elated Over the Success of Their Benefit Picture, "The Third Alarm"

FIREMEN SOLD 2,000 TICKETS

To Add to Realism of Pictures Siren and Bell From Fire Department Were Used

The Brainerd Fire Department feels highly elated over the success of their benefit picture, "The Third Alarm" which was shown at the New Park theatre to record audience Wednesday and Thursday.

It has been the custom in former years to hold an annual ball, but this year's picture proved a bigger event and brought in more money for the department than anything previously tried.

The firemen sold their allotment of two thousand tickets and could have found buyers for many more. This is in addition to those sold at the box office.

To add to the realistic features of the picture, which contained a thrilling fire scene in the climax, the siren and bell from the fire truck was used being operated from the wings of the stage. Firemen were stationed at the various exits of the theatre, thus emphasizing the fact that the show was theirs.

The department wishes to thank all who supported this benefit, for the publicity it was given and the many courtesies shown the committee in charge.

Busy Bee Class

The Busy Bee class of the Zion's Evangelical church met at the home of Margaret Gorton on Wednesday evening, February 21. After a short business meeting, the girls entertained their mothers. A delicious luncheon was served at the close of the evening.

Within a few weeks a motion was made and carried to impeach the mayor for refusing to enforce the dog ordinance, and to appoint a day for his trial. The trial was set for July 30th, 1875, but no record of it is to be found. Very few city council meetings followed (September 13th, November 22nd, and January 18th) and only minor matters were taken up, such as allowing bills. One example will suffice: a bill of $1.50 for burying dogs was presented; the council allowed only seventy-five cents. When a city council has only such trivial business to consider, it is high time to throw up the city charter and revert to a township form of government. In fact, as early as September 13th, 1873, M. C. Russell in a Tribune editorial urged that Brainerd become a township, because the combined city and county governments were too expensive to maintain. Brainerd and Crow Wing were the only settlements in the county; so Brainerd had to pay almost the entire cost of both governments.

In the winter of 1876, the legislature took away the city charter and authorized a township government. On March 14th, 1876, the first town meeting was held. For several years only minor matters were taken up.

On November 18th, 1881, an act of the legislature re-established city government here, incorporating the "City of Brainerd." The notice by the Secretary of State bears the date of November 21, 1881. On January 10, 1882, the city elected the following officials: Mayor B. F. Hartley, Aldermen James Dewar, George Stratton, William Ferris (President), A. P. Farrar, George Forsythe and Adam Brown. Leon E. Lum was appointed city attorney. The council fixed liquor licenses at $50.00 per year.

The deadlock came, however, in his relations with his council. They would not recognize him at all. They disapproved every appointment he made; Brainerd was even without a chief of police. HINT PROFESSIONALISM IN OLYMPICS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 23.—Olympic games in Paris could naturally be expected but to find the boys at it so soon is rather a surprise.

English authorities are greatly agitated over the action of French authorities in reinstating Jean Vermeulen, the "world's champion professional distance runner."

The French Olympic officials replied to British criticism with statements that Vermeulen had not been named as a competitor in the Paris game.

The British came right back with—"And he'd better not be." One of the London papers said if Vermeulen should be allowed to compete, that it would not be a surprise to see Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier in the final round for the heavyweight championship of the games.

If the American officials do not stop complaining when Joie Ray and some of the other athletes stop at a first class hotel on their trips and charge for it, the British can protest a lot of our stars and back it up with—"You said so yourself."

No one has been able to give exactly the modern definition of the word amateur as applied to sports, but the late Bob Maxwell, former Philadelphia sports writer, when asked once to distinguish between a professional and an amateur said:

"A professional will take a check."

When the pans of the world are being pounded in his ears and all the raspberries in the berry patch are being crushed on his table, Johnny Kilbane, the champion holdout of the featherweight class, can rejoice that he will never suffer the loss of his title like Willie Hoppe, a popular champion.

Hoppe was bothered by a serious nervous affliction which settled in his arms when he lost the billiard title to Jake Schaeffer and which bothered him when he was winning the title back recently.

Specialists told him later that his trouble was caused by too much shaking hands.

Hoppy should make his manager, Benny Benjamin, do more of it. That's what some of them are paid for.

There are six married couples represented in the cast of "Is Matrimony a Failure?" the new Paramount special comedy, directed by James Cruze which comes to the Lyceum theatre tonight and Saturday.

As suggested by the title, this is a comedy of matrimonial errors and although the picture presents and discusses in a highly humorous vein, the question, it doesn't attempt to answer it, but closes, as it begins with a large interrogation point.

The stage success "The Open Door" was the basis for this new comedy, which was scenarized by Walter Woods.

Marshall Neilan's "Strangers' Banquet" Coming to Lyceum

Another Marshall Neilan production, his first made since his recent affiliation with Goldwyn Pictures Corporation is coming to the Lyceum theatre on Monday for two days. It is a screen version of Donn Byrne's novel, "The Strangers' Banquet," and is said by Neilan himself and by many famous directors, stars and writers who have seen it at private screenings to be the finest production he has yet made. Neilan produced "The River's End," "Go and Get It," "Dinty," "Penrod," "Fools First" and many other pictures which have been striking successes from both a financial and artistic point of view. Every one who has ever seen a Marshall Neilan production will want to see "The Strangers' Banquet." It is made on a bigger scale, and with greater resources to call upon, than any other picture he has made.

GEORGIAN, RADICAL, IN MICHIGAN CELL

Minneapolis, Feb. 22.—Alexis Georgian, Minneapolis radical who was extradited to Michigan for trial on a charge of violating Michigan's anti-syndicalism law, still was in jail at St. Joseph, Mich., today, but Circuit Judge Charles E. White has reduced his bail from $10,000 to $5,000 and attorneys expected to obtain his release within two or three days.

Dan W. Stevens, secretary of the Minneapolis branch of the National Defense council, said $1,200 had been forwarded to Chicago to be applied on Georgian's bail.

Twenty-two defendants are to be tried on a charge of attending a communist party convention near St. Joseph last August. Georgian is the last one of the 22 to be in jail. William Z. Foster, editor of the Labor Herald of Chicago and identified with the steel strike in 1919, will be the first one of the 22 to go on trial. The court late yesterday granted a postponement until March 12 to give the defense time to take depositions.

"The Voice From the Minaret," will be shown at the New Park on Saturday and Sunday.

Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien in "The Voice from the Minaret"

Eugene O'Brien Again With Norma Talmadge

Eugene O'Brien's lucky number is three!

On the ninth numerical three of his life, when in the natural order of things his friends would have been lighting twenty-seven birthday candles at his table in the Lambs Club, he started for California to again begin work before the camera with Norma Talmadge after a professional separation of three years.

In those earlier days of Norma's stellar triumphs, Eugene O'Brien shared honors with her, the pair being co-starred for three years. Fans are overjoyed at the prospect of seeing the famous pair in teamwork once more.

The picture which brings them together is "The Voice From the Minaret," the essence of drama handled with the magnificent skill that marks the outstanding novels of Robert Hitchens, its theme the struggle for spiritual ascendancy over fleshpots that are Egypt's.

If his luck of three holds good, both Eugene and the fans hope they will play together at least another three years. Anyway, she is the only actress he will play opposite on the screen.

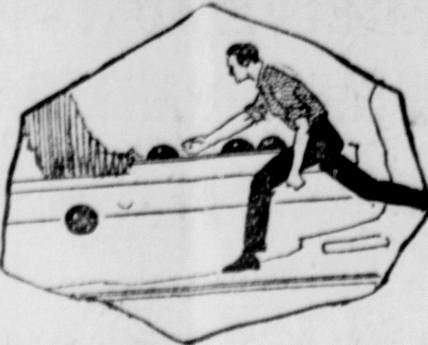

"The Voice From the Minaret," will be shown at the New Park on Saturday and Sunday.

FORMAL WITHDRAWAL OF SUIT IS ORDERED

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Feb. 20.—Formal withdrawal of the suit against the Equity Co-operative Exchange was ordered today in district court.

Judge Charles Bechhoefer filed an order discharging and vacating motions and all records. The order followed motion of the plaintiff, Emil Piper, et al, to discharge the proceedings.

Complete reorganization of the exchange follows settlement of the differences between the two factions out of court.

Two men against whom J. M. Anderson, former president, made serious charges, are gone. They are G. A. Thiel, secretary, and B. J. Loage, C. B. Swanson, who succeeded Mr. Anderson as general manager some time ago, is also out. Magnus Johnson, candidate for governor last fall, and J. F. Kelly, St. Paul, both are dropped from the executive committee in the new deal.

Louis Noltmeier will be succeeded as president by Paul Moore, West Branch, Iowa.

J. M. Anderson will remain as director, but will not be in active charge since he intends to launch a private business, it was stated.

Compliments.

Compliments which we think are deserved, we accept only as debts, with indifference; but those which conscience informs us we do not merit, we receive with the same gratitude that we do favors given away.—Goldsmith.

School Teacher's Friends Made Glad

One of them had this to say yesterday. "We never thought that poor Ellen would ever recover, she had suffered so long from stomach and liver trouble and had lost more than 40 pounds in weight. She took a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy upon the advice of her aunt and has steadily improved from the first dose. We are all confident of her complete recovery." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment, declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Menthosulphur and improvement shows next day.

Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Menthosulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.

Get a small jar of Rowles Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Adv.
